MGA Women’s Senior Amateur Championship

LAST YEAR’S CHAMPIONSHIP

WINONA, Minn. – Stepping away from competitive golf while dealing with injuries and family matters in recent years, there was one word that came to mind following Lynn Anderson’s victory at the 2023 Minnesota Golf Association Women’s Senior Amateur Championship at The Bridges. Comeback.

Anderson won four consecutive MGA Women’s Senior Amateur Four-Ball titles with partner Leigh Klasse from 2015 to 2018 before making just three appearances at state championships from 2019 to 2021 dealing with two frozen shoulders and tending to her ailing mother.

Opening the 2023 championship with a 10-over 81, Anderson carded a final-round 78, claiming medalist honors at 17-over 159 for a two-stroke victory over Barb Miller and Christine Dean.

Following her opening-round 81 at The Bridges, Anderson entered the final round one shot off the lead, but quickly took the outright lead thanks to her birdie from 20 feet at the fourth.

Playing her first six holes in 1-under, Anderson’s lead quickly vanished as struggles with her putter set in mid-round.

Anderson recaptured the outright lead at the 11th and extended her lead with a birdie at the par-4 13th, sinking a 15-footer.

She would play her final five holes in 3-over to post a final-round 78 to earn her eighth state championship victory.

Miller, winner of the 2023 MGA Women’s Senior Amateur Four-Ball Championship with Cathy White at Owatonna

Country Club, battled back from an early double-bogey during her front nine, sinking her birdie putt at the ninth to move within one shot of the lead.

But she would play her final nine holes in 5-over to post a 9-over 80 to earn a share of second at 161.

Dean, who claimed the 2022 MGA Women’s Senior Amateur Four-Ball Championship with Adele Peterson at Whitefish Golf Club, carded an 11-over 82 during the opening round to enter the final 18 holes two shots back of the lead.

Playing her opening nine in 4-over, Dean played the first seven holes of her inward nine in 5-over before sinking her birdie opportunity at the par-4 17th.

A par at the last put Dean in the clubhouse with a share of second, carding a final-round 79 for the second lowest score of the championship.

Lynn Anderson, the 2023 MGA Women’s Senior Amateur champion, returns to defend her title at Eagle Creek Golf Club this year.
